Product Introduction

The KKSB Rock 5B Case is a stylish and protective housing option for your single-board computer. Its design ensures both safety and temperature regulation. The KKSB Rock 5B Case comes equipped with a large passive heatsink, making sure your ROCK 5B stays cool even during intense use. And if that's not enough, the heat sink is removable with screws, giving you space to add Hats or other cooling solutions like an active cooling system.
